

INDEX

Arts & Leisure	7
Sports	23
Real Estate	17
Classifieds	18
Services	19

Medfield Hometown Weekly

Vol. 16 No. 31

August 1, 2013

Every Home...Every Week

FOOTBALL SEASON IS JUST AROUND THE CORNER

Stephen Ledogar throws a pass against Mansfield at the Under Armour 7 on 7
Regional.

PHOTOS COURTESY OF RYAN LANIGAN/HOCKOMOCKSPORTS.COM

BY JOSH PERRY

Hometown Weekly Staff

Although official practices are still a couple of weeks away, the Medfield High football team has begun its preparations for the upcoming season. Last weekend, the Warriors took part in the annual Under Armour 7 on 7 Northeast Regional at Oliver Ames High in Easton.

Medfield finished 2-2 in the passing competition with wins against Marion and Wellesley and defeats to Quincy and

FOOTBALL continued on page 23

FOOTBALL

continued from front page

Mansfield. Head coach Erik Ormberg considered the competition to be a success for the program, which competed for the second time.

"The goal is to have a team bonding competition in the middle of summer," said Ormberg. "The day was a confidence-builder and gave our players a chance to compete, which helps complement the conditioning aspect of summer workouts."

In addition to the varsity players taking part in the passing competition, Medfield football also held its annual Junior Warrior Football Academy for the youth programs. Ormberg announced the following award winners:

Camper of the week - Eric Ledogar

Spirit Award - Jack Goodman

Leadership Award - Liam O'Toole

Hard Work Award -
Cameron Guinta

Most Improved Award -
Ben Leonard

Counselor of the Week -
Nick Fragola

David Coughlin (white shirt) works to get open at the 7 on 7 competition.

Tommy Sears and the Warriors went 2-2 at OA.